CODEWAY EXPO

BUSINESS FOR COOPERATION

The Codeway Expo 2026 project was created as a relational platform dedicated to the world of international development cooperation; the goal is to provide sector stakeholders with a unique opportunity to discuss tools and best practices aimed at supporting businesses wishing to operate within the Italian and European development aid strategy.

Every year, Codeway Expo represents a virtuous path to support responsible business practices, which looks to the growth prospects of new generations. In approaching highly changing international scenarios, the challenge of new economic and social models lies in the ethical balance between the environment, inclusion, technological innovation, and sustainability.

~ The Event ~

Codeway Expo 2026 returns as a traditional meeting place for the community of the development actors, institutions, enterprises, international organizations and agencies, and NGOs.

With the 2026 edition, Codeway Expo will continue to refer to the essential principles of Development Cooperation, which can be summarized in the 5Ps expressed by the international community with the adoption of the 2030 Agenda and its Sustainable Development Goals: People, Planet, Partnership, Prosperity and Peace.

The event's proven format returns, including an Expo area, a high-level Forum, meeting and discussion opportunities, networking activities and B2B meetings, training events dedicated to businesses and professionals on Procurement topics, dedicated Pitch and Boardroom Sessions reserved for Exhibitors and Stakeholders.

The lay-out of Codeway Expo 2026 will offer various presentation and discussion areas designed to host Italian and international institutions, regions, trade associations, banks, and much more.

~ The thematic sectors ~

~ Why exhibit ~

To develop new business within the framework of the international cooperation programs

Participating in special B2B programs and connect with international buyers
and potential partners from target countries through programs of scheduled appointments

To meet national and local institutions and international stakeholders

Counting on dedicated presentations within the general program
as an opportunity reserved for exhibiting companies

To be at the center of the global market
open to new forms of solidarity, partnerships, projects and agreements

And be part of the community of companies oriented towards ethical and responsible business models,
to meet research and training in the field of highly technological innovation models

~ International Networking ~ Projects ~ Procurement ~

The Networking and Procurement program, including presentations and meetings organized as part of CODEWAY EXPO, are promoted to encourage the participation of exhibitors, sponsors, institutions, and stakeholders who collaborate in the event's realization.

Through intense interaction and a careful selection of the topics under discussion, CODEWAY EXPO provides equipped areas where companies can meet with numerous delegations, speakers, sponsors, and institutions. Here, collaborations, projects, partnerships, and agreements can once again be discussed.

Thanks to the 2025 edition, which saw the participation of 33 countries, Codeway Expo consolidates its international scope and renews its collaboration with the United Nations, offering businesses new opportunities in the development cooperation sector.

~ A Complete Program ~

— COUNTRY PITCH & PRESENTATION

In collaboration with institutions and stakeholders CODEWAY EXPO will identify countries and institutions that will participate and animate meetings, training sessions and discussion tables in a B2G perspective aimed at giving guidelines and practices addressing the challenges posed to day by the global development situation

— PIVOT & TESTIMONIAL

Invitation programs will be launched to attract Selected Operators from target Markets and Countries invited to tell their concrete experiences in bi-multilateral contexts, and to participate in discussions and meetings at various levels

— WEBINAR & TRAINING

The program of conferences and discussion events will address specific topics related to the approach to markets, opportunities offered by calls for proposals and other initiatives, in collaboration with institutions, agencies, academia, organizations and donors.
